

England

Kenya

continent

Europe

continent

Africa

capital city

London

capital city

Nairobi

River Thames

Nairobi River

location

North West Europe

location

East Africa

climate

mild & warm

climate

Kenya's coast is tropical
The city of Nairobi is temperate

continent

Huge areas of land with many countries in England is found in the continent of Europe Kenya is found in the continent of Africa

country

A place with its own government. England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales are countries of the United Kingdom.

Kenya has its own government

city

A very large town with airports, banks, railway stations, motorways and other important buildings - museums, churches and cathedrals

human feature

Things that have been built by humans, like houses, roads, bridges and shops physical feature

Things that are natural, like forests, rivers and mountains

landmark

A standout feature in the landscape, like London's Big Ben or Nairobi's Times Tower.
Can also be a physical feature - grasslands tropical hot and rainy

temperate not too hot or too cold